

MAKING CONNECTIONS

News Decoder helps young people connect the dots to understand complex issues and become informed, solutions-focused global citizens.

Connecting Students

Since 2015, more than 15,000 students from 20 countries have accessed our global education platform to develop empathy, intercultural understanding and respect for diversity

Connecting to Experts

Our professional journalists mentor students to help produce high-quality articles, podcasts and webinars for a global audience

Connecting Continents

We've published more than 1,200 stories by and for youth to connect with readers in more than 190 countries

Connecting Educators

Educators use our innovative teaching tools to build global competencies and connect classrooms across borders to investigate issues

YOUR SUPPORT
MAKES THIS POSSIBLE

Your donation will help us reach our goals to:

- Grow our school network by 50% in the next two years, with a focus on Africa, Asia, and Latin America
- Engage more youth with our global education platform by expanding free open-access resources
- Step up our support for global educators with professional development days, webinars, and a global discussion forum

THANK YOU!

Give today at news-decoder.com/makingconnections

NEWS DECODER

A global educational news service for young people

@newsdecoder